SS

Đ,

ADIES ND

NS.

JACKSON, MISS.

CHAS, B. HOWRY.

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR.

OXFORD, MISS. ECIAL ATTENTION TO BUSINESS IN THE O. L. CARTER

TABOR & CARTER, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW. OXFORD, MISS,

FECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO BUSINESS In the Federal Court held at Oxford Miss. (D andw 1m

JOHN T. HOLT. Attorney at Law.

Crystal Springs, Miss.

J. W. Jenkins. Attorney and Counsellor at Law, Jackson, Miss.

Collection of Claims a specialty.

A. W. BURNET. Attorney at Law, WILL practice in all the Courts of Copiah and Hinds. Office at Crystal Springs. Collection of Chalms a specialty.

ORT. J. BOWES. J. S. ARMSTRONG BOWEN & ARMSTRONG.

Attorneys at Law. Jackson, - Miss. Office up stairs over John Hart's store, and street.

Physician and Surgeon, ee Office at his Drug Store in Edwards House ## Residence, the one lately occupied by A. H.

H. B. Mayes, Jr., TTORNEY AT LAW.

Dental Rooms

JACKSON, MISS. Oxide Gas, for the PAINLESS EXTRAC-

Il operations executed with neutness and dis-h, at the lowest rates you cash. Hiddw.

Jesse R. Jones & Co., (Between the Stores of Lotterhos & Barnes.) CRYSTAL SPRINGS, MISS., A FIRST CLASS DRUG STORE.

r. Jesse R. Jones' Special Preparations St. James Hotel.

LEAKE & CARRAHER. Proprietors, No. 40 Magazine - treet.

-NEAR CANAL-NEW ORLEANS.

MILLER HOUSE. NATCHEZ, MISS.

Hacks running to and from the house on arrival four and trains.

Set A sample room especially for commercial arcters.

Feb13-ly

OLD AND RELIABLE.

G. LASHER & SON. Commission Merchants. WHOLESALE PRUITS AND PRODUC CHICAGO. Flank or Wholesale House, mch27-6m.

EYRICH & CO., BOOKSELLERS and STATIONERS

DEALERS IN Shades and Snade Fixtures, STEREOSCOPES, SCHOOL AND MIS-CELLANEOUS BOOKS, ETC., late Street, . . - Jackson, Miss. mek27-1y.

for the sale of rights to use the LEMENT ATTACHMENT in Mississippi ouisiana and Florida, and the cotton tory machinery used in the "New Pross" Cotton Mills, I am prepared to resilve orders for the sales of the control of the contro rders for the above. G. D. BUSTAMANTE, AGT., Jackson, Miss.

JOHN M. SMYLIE.

VOL. III.

JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI, SATURDAY, JUNE 5, 1880.

NO. 32.

The Combat

Scatter West, Bart, in the Brooklyn Engle

THE first new wheat of the season sold in Dallas, Texas, for $1 50 per

THE ceremony of decorating the graves of the Federal dead was observed throughout the country on Monday.

THE authorities of Waco, Texas, have arrested Rev. A. S. Kionan, of Chicago, who is charged with cattle stealing.

A ROWING match has been arranged between Hanlan and Trickett, the Australian champion. It will take place on the Thames.

KERNEY has once more turned him self loose on the people of San Francisco, and the Sand Lots again echo with his agitation speeches.

Two aged widow ladies, Mrs. Maria murdered in Avon, Conn., on Sunday last. No clue to the murderers.

and northern Colorado, and the whites in those localities are making their exit from the same.

LITTLE McCracken, a young man the accidental discharge of a pistol, at Coffeeville, Miss., on the 26th inst.

A CYCLONE visited Savoy, Texas, on Saturday last, by which eleven persons were killed, many wounded and the town almost completely destroyed.

THE negro, Scott Bell, who murdered the old colored preacher at Starkville, Miss., last month, has been tried, convicted, and sentenced to be hung on July 2d.

to Turbolosk. The sentences will be submtted to General Mellikoff, Chief omer of State and Pearl Streets, over Ledbetter's of Supreme Executive Commission, for confirmation. A letter from Mexico tells of a speand produce an immense revenue for It is strong and silky, and capable of being divided into threads from which FIRST CLASS DRUG STORE. gossamer webs might be woven. In fact, a few months ago a Veracruzuno sent some of the fibre to England and had a few handkerchiefs made, which were extremely beautiful, appeared were quite strong speech at the conclusion of the per- about "the milliner." formance in Booth's Theatre:

Miss Neilson's Farewell.

Ladies and gentlemen: I have been associated, as you have been, with her happiness, there should be a stronger word than sadness to express mauga, and too, that she was a lady all that she feels. It seems to me that I am leaving not only friends but hapagain be so bright as they have been to me here—nor flowers bloom nor argument. music sound any more. I cannot thank you better, for all you have done to me, than to say that I leave you with sorrow, and that I shall al-ways speak of you with a grateful and often think of you with tears. Take, then the assurance that that son in attempting to cloud the reputation. Take, then the assurance that son in attempting to cloud the reputation of an honorable Southern and appreciation, and let me bid you goodbye with the thought that, as I woman, in order, as he expressed it, "to strengthen the case of a soul ess never shall forget you, so shall you keep a small place in your memories corporation."

Sheriff Morrison's Bond.

To the Editor of the Court: good deal to say about our Sheriff's had spoken so lightly, and that he had bond, a few words on that subject at ascertained that she was not only a this time appears to us to be in place. lady above reproach in the commu-Clement's Attachment, the understanding that an additional and the loved wife whose parting kiss one should be given before he begun was probably the dearest consolation AVING RECEIVED THE AGENCY the collection of the taxes of 1880. that he had as he felt his life-blood After consultation with friends, it was ebbing slowly away. He said that he considered advisable to make up the was what was called a Northern man additional bond within the thirty days in the South, inasmuch as he was allowed officers to qualify. A few Union soldier, but he hoped that a just days of the time only being 'eft, sev- God might palsy his tongue, if he ever eral men went on the bond temporar- attempted to blacken the character ily, with the understanding that they of a dead soldier's lonely spouse, even were to be released as soon as other though she was the wife of a brave names could be supplied. At the May meeting of the Board, he conceived to be right. upon application of Mr. Morrison, an At this time he had been speaking order was made releasing Thos. E. nearly three hours, and as he glanced Helm, in accordance with the agree- around there was not a lawyer at the Helm, in accordance with the agreetorchass find Estate will find it to their ina call, or correspond with us for corresponding to the people of $172.

The forms with dry eyes, and tears were even to form the desired that the amount of fifty busines for distribution among the form with the agree of the form with the amount of the was made up by some of the best men in the county, one or more of whom in the county of a more than the amount of the was not a lawyer at the form the destribution among the first business for distribution among the first business for distribution among the for the full was more than the county of a million have such specific to sell for the state. The Gents with a proposition to purchase to durable, and track must be durable, and track must be with a proposition to purchase the form the destribution among the first business of the State. The Gents fifty business for dis

Letter from Washington.

OUR FORECAST IDEAS OF MEN-CONKLING, BLAINE, VOORHEES.

A Reminiscence of the Senator from Indiana.

THE POWER OF ELOQUENCE.

THE PRESIDENTIAL RACERS.

As I sat in the Senate reserved gallery a few days ago, looking down on the "most potent, grave and reverend seigneurs;" who compose that body, I could not help thinking of the vast Arrant and Mrs. Emily Chitzey, were difference in the ideal pictures I had drawn of the prominent members of the Senate, before having seen them, and the Senators as they are. For in-THE Indians are raiding Wyoming stance I had funcied—and my impressions were drawn from a newspaper reading-that in Conkling, of New York, I would behold as handsome a specimen of humankind as could be nineteen years of age, was killed by with black hair and piereing eyes, found anywhere. I had pictured him looking as wise as a picture of Minerva, and as bold as a Numean lion. I found him to be white headed, quite commonplace in appearance, very unlike somewhat bowlegged in the bargain. I read in a newspaper once that he looked as if just out of a band-box, sault. He heard that Whittaker had looked as if just out of a band-box, sault. He heard that Whittaker had and frequently wore a button-hole failed to clear himself, while the chain bouquet in the lappel of his lustrous broadcloth coat. He may have done this in the olden time, but he neither wears the flowers nor the broadcloth coat now, but in the plain suit of gray cy on the ground that plaintiff had his own evidence, should have subset fire to his store in order to obtain ledged without summoning assistance was represented by Jos. T. Harrison, cies of cactus which is very abundant in that country, that might be utilized ver Mississinni has ever produced. It yer Mississippi has ever produced. It impoverished coffers of that Re- appeared in the testimony that a milpublic. It is called the "pita," and some of its fibres are sixteen feet long, story of the plaintiff's store-house, and with the view of depreciating Mr Francis in the minds of the jury, Mr. Harrison insinuated very strongly in ing of April 6; that he was feigning his speech that an improper intimacy existed between Mr. Francis and the more like silver tissue than linen and milliner, and in speaking of her be seemed to throw a mingled sarcasm and contempt into his pronunciation as he drawled out every now and then, make it. Miss Neilson made the following in a peculiar nasal twang, something It chanced that the husband of a milliner was on the jury, and Mr. come before you to say farewell. Voorhees hearing of this, and also the Parting is always sad. But when the actress must part with those who have wife of a Confederate soldier who died bravely on the battle field of Chicka-piness itself; that the skies can never pretty comfortable while waiting for Mr. Harrison to conclude his long When he was at last done, Mr. Voorhees arose, and after going carefully over all the testimony in the case, he referred to the remarks of Mr. Harrison in attempting to cloud the repu-

"to strengthen the case of a soul ess Warming up as he progressed, his fine toned voice seemed to become to the jury that he had made inquiries As our Terry neighbor has had a about the lady of whom Mr. Ha rison man who fought against him for what afterward learned, through Senator Lamar, that Mr. Voorhees considered that speech as one of the best of his life, as it no doubt was.

The Presidential outlook has changed about as rapidly here as a panoramic scene. For a time Bayard was undoubtedly the man who must head our ticket for the chief magistracy. our ticket for the chief magistracy. very enthusiastic up here. The last is a well known fact that not only is chief standard bearer. The Randall boom has also created faint notice, but the Field tide is at this time above all others, and seems to be gaining strength rapidly.

G. P. H.

The Whittier Case,

Further evidence was adduced cal-culated to demonstrate that Whittathe pictures we had seen of him, and ker was not veracious, and Recorder somewhat bowlegged in the bargain. of circumstantial evidence was so overwhelming, that a court martial for perjury and conduct unbecoming a cadet was imperative. This statement made a sensation. Lieut. Knight made an argument for Whittaker, maintaining that the ex-

the insurance money. The defense during the assault, or immediately

Third-It believes that a person fied s he was, and left as he claims to have been, could have receased in should be exert himself to do so. could have released himself Fourth-From the testimony of the post surgeon and others, the cour. is on the contrary, I am perfectly willing for the first time in her life, went to compelled to believe that Whittaker to tell just what I know." Fifth-The court is not able to discover any metive that any person other than Whittaker could have had in making such an assault, and there is no evidence whatever to warrant the belief that any other person did over the black stretch of trees far over Sixth-It believes that the bair elipping, flesh cutting and binding could have all been accomplished by Whittaker himself.

Seventh-The theory that the note warning is an imitation of Whittaker's writing is, in the opinion of the court, untenable. The severe tests to which the experts in handwriting were subjected, and their positive tes timony places it beyond a doubt that Whittaker himself wrote the note of warning, and therefore, that he is not ignorant of the person or persons en-gaged in the affair. The latter conclusion is strengthened by the first, that one-half of the sheet of paper on which this note is written was found in Whittaker's possession. Opinion-After a strong array of cirunistantial evidence from the testimony of experts in handwriting, and ion that the imputation upon the "Yes," she resumed, "when I could character of Cadet Whittaker, referred to in the order convening the court in as society afforded, (this with a cal-case is disposed of, and a guard will keep him under surveillance.

Toomby Would Give, Not Sell Seed. Atlanta Republican.

We are informed that Gen. Toombs We are mormed that tech. Toomles has twelve acres of wheat of the "Bill Dallas" variety on his farm near Washington, Wilkes county, which his neighbors estimate will yield thirty bushels per acre. It is entirely free from rust, while the crop gen-erally is seriously injured. The Gen-eral has been sowing this variety for about thirty years, and has never had rust. Commissioner Henderson, hear-ing of these facts, approached Gen. Poembs with a proposition to purchase WHY PEOPLE DON'T MARRY. Quondam Reigning Belle Said.

When, after the New York Convention, Mr. Tilden came prominently to the front again. Next came a boom for Gen. Hancock, though it was not very enthusiastic up here. The last very enthusiastic up here. The last decided sensation is thoroughly in favor of Mr. Justice Field, and his friends are saying boldly that, beyond the almost certainty of his being able to carry California, Oregon and Nevada, that his backers have more "barl's" of money to spend in his be"barl's" of money to spend in his be"barl's" of money to spend in his behalf than Mr. Tilden could possibly roll out to be tapped. How true this was on rather intimate terms with money talk is, I am not aware, but it her and had been more than once is a well known fact that not only is captured by the brilliancy of her is a well known fact that not only is
Mr. Tilden decidedly friendly toward Mr Field, but that also the Kelly opposition in New York would unite on him at a moment's warning as our chief standard bearer.

Captured by the britancy of her conversational powers and a nameless charm of manner that had in the years just gone by, placed her high on the list of "girls to be visited," by the exquisites of society.

When the reporter first observed
when the reporter first observed her she was one of a crowd of elderly ladies and gentlemen who were dis-cussing church matters, the Bishop Polk Society and the Uptown Female Orphan Asylum. Every now and then she turned her head aside to bestow a smile and a nod at the different old time beaux that passed her by. They returned the saluta-tion by doffing their hats in one, two, three time, but none of them stopped to chat with her or even to shake the hand that was listlessly toying with a watch chain. "Why not interview her," thought the reporter, "It might be an interest-ing matter to find out why she hasn't married. "

Acting on the suggestion, he made Acting on the suggestion, he made his way toward her, and after an exchange of salutations, he proposed a promenade. She accepted with no evident signs of avidity and pretty soon she and the reporter were strolling about the hurricane roof.

a great deal of truth."

"Wouldn't you like to give your experience ou the subject?"

"Wint," she cried with a start,
"publish what I know?" Then, after a pause which insted several minutes, "What if I do; my thoughts are changing so often now that it might do me a great deal of good to read at some future day what my honest convictions are now. No. I don't object :

was neither asleep nor insensible "To begin then, why havn't you when he was examined on the morn-married?" Because I have never had the opportunity," she laughed. But the ones of the laugh died out in a gratthe river.

"How can you say that, Miss Nellie
"How can you say that, waying mer I know of at least three young men whom you have discarded." "Who are they, tell me," she asked eagerly, with a coquettish twinkle in her eyes, that looked, oh, so painfully, out of keeping with the rest of her

"But, pshaw, why ask such a silly uestion. I have had opportunities to harry, and the reason I did not profit by them was that I was not taught that I was only a member of a practical and busy world; because I was thrown in an artificial society; a Countess of Dornberg, a title con-because I learned that true ferred on her by her father-in-law, happiness could only be attained the late Grand Duke Bernhard of through insincerity and deceit, and on account of such an education, I was content with the flattery and adulation of the fops and gilded escorts, and reconciled it to my conscience to east lead to be a sound of the fops and despise the love and respect loosened the prejudices which took lead to be a sounced, lead to be projected by the project of the Empress Sake-Weimar, brother of the Empress Augusta of Germany.

Louis Napoleon's match with Eugenie de Montijo, and the sovereign status which she at once assumed, loosened the prejudices which took loosened the prejudices which took more musical, as he went on to state to the jury that he had made inquiries of cadets and the post surgeon, is fully was the envy of society women, and was the envy of society women, and may presence at the Mardi Gras, Less When the report was sent to Gen. Schoffeld, and carefully read by him, he caused a letter to be addressed to Col. Lazelle, commandant of the corps of Cadets, directing the arrest of Whittaker and placing him in control of my name breath with the want for a my name breath with the marting of my name breath with the When Mr. Morrison was installed in office the Board of Supervisors fixed his tax collector's bond at $10,000, with sweet experience to have to neknowledge that my powers have slipped through my grasp, and that I am left alone to feed on the recollection of my pust victories. Look at these parts. will remain under arrest until this sweet experience to have to acknowlpast victories. Look at those gentle-men behind us, chatting with those young girls; they are as welcome to them as they used to be in circles over which I once reigned. They ignore my presence, and perhaps glory in the consciousness that their attractions are still as bright as they were in the hey-day of life, while mine are so dendened that they cause me to sink

"Don't ask me if I would. I yearn for marriage so intensely in my desolate moments that life becomes unendurable, and try as I will I cannot distract my thoughts from the desire that possesses my what is a summan of the possesses my what is a summan of the possesses and the summan of the possesses are the summan of the possesses and the summan of the possesses are the summan of t bliss that is denied me, I think I could be of some use to myself and others before the fires of life have en-tirely died out."

Once more her eyes were turned toward the setting sun and into them came a longing so intense in depth and intensity that the reporter, too, observed at him compassion tally and of the States, a newspaper published in turned away his head, ashamed of the emotion that crept over him, warming into genial life a passionate sym-pathy that he remembers never to have felt before.

"And yet," spoke his companion, do I not deserve it all? Can I con-scientiously revile the abuses that have erept into society when I, my-self have been one of the instruments in the promotion of some of the most glaring ones. Could I have only seen that the young boys whom I helped to lead on and encourage in their hollow look back upon my life."

"But it is never too late to mend; why don't you begin now."

"Ah, how hopeless such a fask would be! At every turn I should meet with reminders of my shameless work. Besides what good can a woman, such as I, effect? I who have meet with reminders of my shameless work. Besides what good can a woman, such as I, effect? I who have passed the nights of my bright youth at balls, parties, theatres, and social re-unions of all sorts; the mornings in my chamber, and have never seen the sun rise; I who have spent my days in novel reading, ostensible shopping and matinces! What help could I give a husband if I had one? I could not sympathize with him in his losses not sympathize with him in his losses and business troubles, because I have never had an insight into practical ly and gaily. But, then, she learned the secret in her society But, then, she had perionee; it was second nature to her to express just the opposite of what she felt.

How Royal Blood is Villified.

The Dowager Duchess of Hamilton

European Letter.

pay her court to the Queen of England when her Majesty was staying at the Villa Hobenlohe. That lady is by birth a Princess of Baden. When she married, some thirty years ago, the Marquis of Douglas, son and heir of that Brian cannot long endure. Gaze the Duke of Hamilton, she was, when she applied for admission to attend a puncheth him." cluded from royal drawing-rooms in pursuance of German etiquette; but she used to go to private dinner parties from the conflicting statements of lonest and manify men.".

Cadet Whittaker, and the lack of veracity evinced by him in certain cases during the inquiry, as shown by the evidence, the court is of the opinion that the court is of the opinion to the evidence, the court is of the opinion to the evidence, the court is of the opinion to the confliction of the opinion to the court of the prince of of the If she had a son he could only take rank in Germany as grand-son of Queen Victoria, and he would not be apt, his Albertine blood being villified, to inherit a shred of Saxe Coburg-Gotha property.

I heard recently at the German urbassy a curious disquisition on the reat "vilified" houses of Europe. strictly speaking, the Duches

Hamilton was not entitled to rank as the daughter of a sovereign house, either before or after her marriage. rederation would have disputed his right to succeed to the Grand Ducal inheritance. I understand that at the court of Germany they regard the interest taken in the Princess Frederica's marriage as a sign that "John Brown, Esq., will ere long stand in the relation of father-in-law to his compatriot, the Marquis of Lorne.

HECOMET

JOB PRINTING.

BOOK PUBLISHING OFFICE.

ALL KINDS OF

Book and Job Printing

NECUTED ON SHORT NOTICE, AND, IN THE

Will H. Kernan Cowhided by Col.

Vicasburg Comme relat, June 1.

With great pain the knight raised It would seem that the agitators of the States, a newspaper published in glanced at him compassionately and turned her eyes to the scene without.

"How goes the fracas," he demanded impatiently. "Methinks 'twere time that he who challenged should have been here ere this. Laggard!
Dost see Brian du Bois Gilbert or Joe that famed city-are no more respectors of places than of persons, as was occurred on Washington street, this city, about nine o'clock this morning, in which the former poet of Okolona —Will H. Kernan, received a cowhid-Gos#? The game knight of Britain should not be wasteful of the time, since he hath much before him ere ing at the hands of Col. A. Y. Harper, the present editor of the States. Col. Harper arrived in the city yesterday this contest shall be given to crown bim victor. Look good Rebecca." in the promotion of some of the most glaring ones. Could I have only seen that the young boys whom I helped to that the young boys whom I helped to lead on and encourage in their hollow and worthless pursuits would reap the fruits of their aimless indulgences and turn into ambitionless members of a diseased society! And yet their sun has not been eelipsed; they still bask in the smiles of women, and have no cause to reflect that their days are passing away. But should they lot tesuch thoughts disturb them? They live for the present. But, my God, is it by such frall images that the young generation of girls, just budding into womanhood, are to be taught society manners; is it by such frall images that they oung generation of girls, just budding into womanhood, are to be taught society and may approach and young generation of girls, just budding into that their instincts are to be directed, and with them their experience on the social platform to be shaped? Suppose I had tried to cure the abuses I found on my entrance into society instead of strengthening them, with how much more satisfaction could I look back upon my life."

"But it is never too late to move the social platform to be shaped? Suppose I had tried to cure the abuses I found on my entrance into society instead of strengthening them, with how much more satisfaction could I look back upon my life."

"But it is never too late to move the social platform to be shaped? Suppose I had tried to cure the abuses I found on my entrance into society instead of strengthening them, with how much more satisfaction could I look back upon my life."

"But it is never too late to move the first shall be of the crown the scale platform to be shaped? Suppose I had tried to cure the abuses I found on my entrance into society instead of strengthening them, with the same is the strength of the crown the scale of the condition. They seek a reference on the social platform to be shaped? Suppose I had tried to cure the abuses to the first shall be one to the state of the crow "And yet could be but one who could speak thus and be obeyed. Tell me Rebecca, does that tall, dark man bear himselt like one who hath bet much on the result?"

"Nay, nay, not so. "Twere more like one who known for the result?"

"Nay, nay, not so. "Twere more provided by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press convention adjusted by the "code duello" immediately after the press con smile of delight,

"They do prepare to fight," said Rebecca, shielding herself with the lattice, "They shake hands and take position. Oh! horrors, that men should meet thus and strike faces that mathers have fouldal. Brisa had."Sai "Sakes alive," said the good natured mothers have fondled. Brian leads Colonel Solon, as he rushed into the with a left-hander under the right eye. Oil City Derrick office, "I never felt The crowd of variets applied. Mer-so warm as this but once afore in my F. E. Daniel, A. D.,

Physician and Surgeon,

Physician and Surgeon,

Profiles in the Port Clark News.

The Country of Inquiry have come to find the condition that the conclusion that the conclusion that the conclusion that the conclusion that the multiling of his makes the multiling of his makes that the did the multiling of his laws and in deals the his makes that the multiling of his makes the multiling of his makes the multiling of his multilines. The most perfect specimen of physical manner of the conclusion that the did the multiling of his multiple and the multiple and the multiple and the multiple and the multiple and "Verily, I mistake him, or he saith that the Knight of Goss hath folled his adversary first."

"And Brian, how of him?"

"They revive him with sponges and much water. Now they are up again. Their blows fall like rain. Their faces are faces no longer. Fair heaven: They strive like engines, while their fellow-beings encourage them. They elineh them together like competing whirlwinds. They are down. Their massive bodies heave with the struggle. Forgive me! I can look no longer!" longer!"

"Nay, nay, maiden, say not so, which congregation watchin' her a whole congregation watchin' her a watchin' her a whole whole her a whole congregation watchin' her a watchin' her a whole congregation watchin' her a whole whole her a watchin' her

Lord Mayor of London

Gaze again Rebecca, Methinks

the sponge to fly?

dead upon the ground, and the Hanlan won with ease.

rush on the Knight of Goss and shake she applied for admission to attend a drawing-room at St. James, told that she could only be received as Marchionessof Douglas and not as Princess of Baden. It was held by the Queen and Prince Consort, and by the Baron Stockmar, that her blood was vilified by her union with an English nobleman, and it must therefore be supposed she derived all her rank from him. A daughter of the late Duke of Richmond, the Princess Edward of Saxe-Weimar, was excluded from royal drawing-rooms in The Knight of Goss followeth him. He struggles to the front of the circle.

The Knight of Goss followeth him.
He handeth him one on the noseth.
They elineh again. Now they break, the away. Again they fly together.
They fall. Ah! it is over. They are dead."

"Not dead, Rebecca, they only wait to be picked up and sponged. Doth Brian seem badly horte?"

"South of the circle.
Britain and Ireland is only for a year, but the holders elhible for re-election the local distribution in the content of the term, and in London, as elsewhere, the office has offentimes been held by the same offentimes been held by the same selected from those engaged in conjugate to the content of the circle. Not dead, Resecca, they only with the bed picked up and sponged. Doth Brian seem badly hurt?"

"Twould seem as if he were grievously injured. His eyes are like the summer storm clouds, while his lower was been elected. Thus, the Honoraumer storm clouds, while his lower was a lawyer. The present holder face taketh on the bues of smeet."

"And he of Goss, Rebecch?"

"And he of Goss, Rebecch?"

"And he of Goss, Rebecch?" "And no of Goss, Rebecch."
"He of Goss pranecth around like the young war-horse, and waveth his arms like the tree smitten by the winds. But lo! they wrangle again, I hear great cries of foul; and now I Mayor is in many ways a very important properties. the sky. I know not what that may portend."

"Quickly, Rebecca, tell me quickly, from which corner of the ring seemeth the second to the meeting at the Mansion House. From that of Brian. He lies like his dripping hand."

Electric Light For Navigators. Electric light has recently been tried

"Whoop!" murmered Ivanhoe, "I for night navigation of the Seine, have won five dellars and I am con- Piaced in the bow of a vesse , its beamss were thrown forward by means of a Aye," mused Rebecca, "and these are men, and some hammer each other that others may wager and win. Ivy, do I get any of that V?" shot clear of bridges and other obstacles without difficulty. We are daily hearing of some fresh applica-tion of the electric light, and in many No Ethel; no, we don't suppose that the cliefical kissing. It is worse than the sther kind. The worst thing about it seems to be that it is more readily and reliable to be place. If seems strange that, it seems to be that it is more readily and reliable to the propose that it is more readily and reliable to the propose of the Drumpose. seems to be that it is more readily and certainly found out and people make a greater fuss about it. Kiss your pastor if you wish, and if he wishes it, but Ethel dear, remember this; although you kiss him never so darkly, in the hall, behind the door, down in the cellar in the dark, down in a cost mine even, it will be in the papers next morning, though never a word will be said about those two times you kissed your cousin Tom on the front verands at noon while the procession for places of business, where the electric light is used merely as an veranda at noon while the procession was going by.-Borlington Hawkeye. attractive advertisement, and fo Ix the Hanlan-Riley boat race, whose labors require a bright and steady means of illumination, it would